Two Long Shots
Score Victories
At Dog Track

Two long shots came home last night at the El Cerrito Kennel club track. It was Major's Model, owned by Major Philz, Major's Model, who finished the eighth of eight in beating Billy The Bum and Nevada Zee in the second race. Secondary options on the dog were worth $42.

The unusual price was made only ten minutes after Meadows' mistake made no mistake in coping the first race of the ripe price at $32.00 on preferred tickets.

By the time Francis Laddie walked across the line in the third race, fans were expecting almost anything in box car figures, but the Happy Laddie dog came down to earth with $20.25.

Form players got in their big bets when Jovial Friend, a 5 to 1 choice at the windows, spread the fourth race. He won by 12 lengths, going away, and was carrying the backing of nine-fifths the buyers. In case you didn't know it Jovial Friend comes from the best greyhound stock. His daddy was Fast Friend, a full brother of My Laddie. In fact, Fast Friend was considered as good as My Laddie until he hurt his leg early in career and had to be retired. Fast Friend and My Laddie were sired by the celebrated Traffic Officer out of Katty Darline. Anytime a pup can boast Traffic Officer lines he's the makings of a champion. Jovial Friend has now won three in a row at El Cerrito track, and is living up to the name.

The big race tonight at El Cerrito sends the Butago, another My Laddie dog, into the future chase with Old Red, Little Red, Wagon, Spit Fire, Another Aristocrat, and Sis Traffic.

Track Records
Are Broken In Speed Trials

OAKLAND, May 13.—The track record for the spectacular half-mile Oakland speedway fell by the wayside today—and not once but twice. Fighting pip and tuck for the honor of shattering the present mark of 28-8 seconds held by Fred Agabashian of Berkeley, were Agabashian and Art Armstrong of San Mateo, both of whom were clocked around the course in the sensational time of 28 seconds flat.

Both drivers turned in their record-breaking laps while practicing for next Sunday afternoon's thrill program on the Oakland course. And as a result of their showings each is rated as an even-money choice to cop the main event.

At present Agabashian holds two victories to Armstrong's one, but with Art getting the "breaks" it is possible that he may take his rival's measure and if he does he will find himself in a splendid position to move into first place in the 1936 championship standing.

Announcement was made this morning by Oakland speedway officials that only 20 will be permitted to start in the 200-mile stock car classic on the mile Oakland oval Sunday, May 31. With entries for this event pouring in rapidly, expectations are that some 30 drivers will signify their intention of participating. As a consequence, Memorial Day trials are scheduled and at their conclusion only the 20 fastest qualifying pilots will be eligible to start.

Suspended Derby
Jockey May Ride
In Big Handicap

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 13.—UP—Jockey Ira Hanford, under 15-day suspension for rough riding in pilot Bold Venture to victory in the Kentucky Derby, may ride in the far as Kentucky racing rules are concerned, according to an opinion handed down today by the Kentucky racing stewards.

"Kentucky rules provide that all jockeys temporarily suspended should be permitted to fulfill all bona fide stake race engagements for their contracted owner," the opinion said.

The ruling, however, has to be acted upon by the Maryland racing stewards before Hanford will be permitted to ride.

"If permission is granted Hanford to ride in the Preakness the Kentucky stewards will be pleased to approve that permission," the statement said.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—UP—Reports that Eddie Potts, 5, missing since last Thursday, was found in a freight train at Colusa, Cal., today are false, officials of the Southern Pacific Railway said tonight.

Hope that the missing boy was found was revived for a few hours today when a report from Colusa said he was seen in the railroad yards there. A thorough check by railroad detectives and county officials revealed, however, the reports were unfounded.

Wine Men Hit
By New French
Trade Treaty

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—UP—Serious harm to the wine industry of the United States, as the inevitable result of the reductions in tariffs on French wines, brandies and vermouth, were predicted today by Harry A. Caddow, secretary-manager of the Wine Institute, the cooperative vintners association in California.

Caddow said the French would flood the American markets with inferior wines and that the reductions were not justified. "American growers and producers will continue the battle to fight against the dangerous tendency to hand over the American wine market to foreign producers," he said.

Advocates of the tariff reduction said there would be little if any effect on the American wine industry as principal reductions were on champagnes and sparkling wines, little of which are produced in the United States. They were supported on this stand by Rep. Frank Buck, of California.

VICE RACKETS
CHIEF; AIDES
FACING TRIAL

NEW YORK, May 13.—UP—A 35 year old girl twined nervously in the witness chair today as she told how she went to work for a vast vice organization allegedly organized by "Lucky" Luciano who earned the incredible sum of $85,000 a week from his traffic in women.

Rose "Cohen" had reason to be nervous, because staring at her from across the courtroom was Luciano himself—New York's Public Enemy No. 1—a dark, tawny haired man who once sat in a suite high in the expensive Waldorf-Astoria hotel, directing his "business." That business, according to Special Prosecutor Thomas Dewey, was to place girls like Rose in houses of prostitution and take half of their earnings.

Luciano and nine of his alleged accomplices are on trial in Supreme court, charged with compulsory prostitution. The fabulous Luciano—the man who spent $100,000 fighting extradition from Hot Springs, Ark.—looked a little seedy today, as Dewey charged that he fought his way to leadership of the vice ring with knife and pistol.

After Dewey had explained to the jury the workings of the alleged organization, he turned and called out: "Rose Cohen." She came to the witness chair, slim, brunette and pretty, but if the courtroom expected to hear a story of an innocent girl being lured to the big city for a life of shame, it was disappointed. Rose was frank about everything, even admitting that her real name was Rena Gello and that she was an Italian and not a Jew. She was there testifying against "Lucky" because Dewey had promised her immunity.

Slush Fund Is Denied By Board

SACRAMENTO, May 13.—UP—Charges by the Los Angeles County Central Democratic Committee, that members of the Board of Equalization would have a $115,000 "slush fund" at their command to use in campaigning for new liquor amendments sponsored by the board, met today with instant and emphatic denial by board members.

"We know nothing about the financing of the campaign," Richard E. Collins, chairman of the board, said. "That is being handled by Clem Whitaker, San Francisco publicity man, and you will have to ask him about that."

PILOT IS DYING IN CRACK-UP

NORTH BEND, Wash., May 13.—UP—The crash of an airplane in the rugged Cascade mountain area north of here killed one Seattle aviator and critically injured another, a searching party of CCC men found today.

Arne Wells, a mechanic, was dead when the woodsmen reached the wreckage, about 25 miles from the nearest settlement. Jay Graybill, head of the Graybill flying service, was injured so badly it was feared he would die.

TAKEN TO MINE
The CCC workers packed Graybill to the Cascade Mines, Inc., for which he and Wells took off from Boeing Field, Seattle, last night.

Department of Commerce Inspector William Moore, who flew over the scene of the accident said the plane, probably piloted by Graybill, apparently was flying low and attempted to make a turn between two mountains, in a box canyon. It crashed on the canyon floor, burying its nose in the snow.

Graybill, who has operated his own service in Seattle since 1932, took off late yesterday for the inaccessible mine with a heavy load of food and other supplies.

Examination and first aid treatment of Graybill at the mine indicated he was injured internally, and had a broken collar bone.

King County Coroner, Otto Mittelestadt left late today for the mountainous region to investigate the accident.

Wells, 29, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Wells of Aberdeen. He was to have been married soon.

Graybill, 40, had made several previous trips from Seattle to the mine.

Tar, Feathers

Damage Actions Have Been Ended

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—UP—Damage suits against Jack Green and Sol Nitzberg, alleged victims of a tar and feather party at Santa Rosa, have been dropped by attorneys for Fred Cairns and Harold G. Campbell, plaintiffs, Austin Lewis, American Civil Liberties Union attorney, announced today.

Lewis, defending Green and Nitzberg, said action of the plaintiffs' attorneys was voluntary. Cairns, with Campbell, had charged Green and Nitzberg "pulled, pushed, jostled, jerked and struck" them, causing them to be "weary and tired." They had asked judgment in the amount of $2500.

However, the counter-suit filed by Green and Nitzberg, accused Communists, against Cairns and Campbell, remained pending. Naming Fred Cairns as leader, Green and Nitzberg alleged they were mistreated by vigilantes in Santa Rosa last year. They filed other suits against members of the tar and feather party, aggregating a total of more than $50,000.

BROWNIES RECEIVE THEIR GOLDEN BARS

Fourteen "Brownies" under the direction of Mrs. A. A. Charlson received their golden bars at a meeting held Wednesday afternoon. The Brownies are to the Girl Scouts, what the Cubs are to the Boy Scouts, a junior organization.

The fourteen who were promoted were Mary Ida Beebe, Joyce Charlson, Shirley Greenlee, Ramona Ingraham, Joan McCormick, Beverly McMoran, Byrle Millian, Norma Rodini, Genevieve North, Audrey Matteson, Dolores Olson, Betty Thorstad, Louise Williams and Betty Loudermilk.

INJURED BOY IS OUT OF DANGER

Donald Borgeson, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Borgeson, who was injured last Friday morning when struck by an automobile while on his way to school, is reported by relatives to be out of danger and on the road to recovery. He sustained a broken collarbone and a fractured skull, and was unconscious four days but is normal now and in his right mind. He doesn't remember what happened to him.

SEAMANS BACK FROM ENJOYABLE VACATION

turned yesterday from a few days vacation spent attending a "round-up" at the Sam McRae ranch, thirty miles out of Red Bluff.

FIREMEN'S BALL IS ABANDONED

The El Cerrito Fire Association at its last meeting held at City Hall recently voted to discontinue the ball parties and dances until next September. There are too many other things to do and too many other places to go during the summer to keep up an interest in the parties. The Association decided also to abandon for this year the practice of holding an annual firemen's ball. Two live turkey whistles will be held during the autumn and these will take the place of the annual ball for this season.

Chief A. A. Burnett is assisting a weed destroying campaign for the city to proceed the regular grass burning work which will begin the last of next month. The chief suggests that co-operation on the part of the El Cerrito citizenry to the extent of cleaning up a space eighteen inches or two feet wide adjoining fences and hedges along property lines would be a great aid to firemen in the grass burning.

HARDING PTA HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

Miss Emma Jean Fuller gave an interesting talk on Child Nutrition at the May 12th meeting of the Harding PTA explaining why certain foods are so necessary to the child's growth.

Miss Margaret Knobles' room gave an interesting playlet on a meeting of a Safety Council. The roll call was answered by a "blow" having to do with safety and there were special reports from some of the boys and girls on what to do in certain accidents and how to avoid others.

Mrs. Percy Jones gave a most interesting report on her trip to San Jose State PTA convention. She was very much enthused over the talks and the general atmosphere of the convention.

The PTA enjoyed a visit from Miss Donna Walker of Alameda who is an E. E. P. instructor at the Y. W. C. A. in Oakland, in needlecraft. She had samples of bags, rugs, pillows, crocheting, knitting, and all sorts of needlework. A number of the members were quite interested in learning some of those crafts.

The president, Mrs. Laura Marsala, announced that there will be two prizes given this next year, one to the grade which has the most mothers attending the PTA meetings for the year, the other to the grade which has the most parents joining the PTA membership drive.

On May 26th the Harding PTA will have the last afternoon whist of the year. Mrs. Edith Leitch will be chairman.

The Harding unit was represented at Richmond Council meeting at Longfellow yesterday by Mrs. Percy Jones and Mrs. Laura Marsala.

Members of the Harding P. T. A. Dramatic Club helped out the cast of the Albany recreation department recently. Mrs. J. K. North, Mrs. Edith Gade, and Mrs. Wm. Rony took part in the play, "A Good Little Girl in the Kitchen," put on at the Cornell school in Albany last week. Due to sickness at the last minute many of the original cast could not appear.

Four Arrested In Game Raids At San Jose

SAN JOSE, May 13.—UP—Charges of operating a gambling house today were drawn up against four men, seized late last night in a raid by sheriff deputies on Junction Inn, San Francisco highway resort near Mountain View.

The men, Harry Witz, James Fisher, George Enrico and John Smith, will probably be arraigned tomorrow. All were released on $25 bail each after their arrest. Thirty-five well dressed patrons of the establishment were not molested by raiding officers.

The raid followed a series of protests from various groups, including the Santa Clara county Pomona grange, which charged vice and gambling were "wide open" in the county.

Sheriff George Lyle, leader of the raiding party, said his men, armed with firemen's axes, had to break through a double system of barred doors. They crashed through six doors to the gaming room where it was said gambling equipment worth several thousand dollars, and $300 in cash, was seized for evidence.

Witz, alleged proprietor of the inn, was said to have purchased the property only a few hours before from Frank "Bingo" Mendoza.

ITALY BREAK WITH LEAGUE SEEN TODAY

ROME, May 13.—UP—Rome was tense tonight as indications mounted that Benito Mussolini will announce Italy's resignation from the League of Nations tomorrow in a speech to the Chamber of Deputies, which he ordered to convene in extraordinary session.

Italian public opinion definitely favors such a move. The keynote of vigorous press attack against the League was that "Italy has had enough."

An indication of what Il Duce may say tomorrow was given by Virginio Gayda, editor of the Giornale d'Italia, regarded as Mussolini's mouthpiece.

"Italy has had enough of Geneva," the newspaper said. "It's unjust verdict has been accepted in Italy with discipline but with reserved disdain."

"The departure of the Italian delegation from Geneva yesterday is significant of Italy's resolute detachment from the League of Nations so long as this state of mental lapse continues."

Meanwhile, Baron Pompeo Aloisi and his co-delegates, ordered to return to Rome from Geneva after the League seated the Ethiopian delegate, arrived and reported immediately to Il Duce at Palazzo Venezia.

Aloisi declined to comment on the precipitate departure from Geneva. "We were told to return to Rome and that's all we know," he said.

Death Ray Tube Inventor Freed Of Theft Charge

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—UP—A fun-loving jury, enjoying assorted jokes and pranks while Henry Fleur demonstrated his "death ray" machine, today acquitted the nervous little inventor of grand theft charges.

More interested in the question of whether sniffs, winks, or a sudden frown would indicate a death ray, the jury found Fleur not guilty of grand theft of the machine, valued at $500, which he had stolen from the Columbia Hotel and taken to the city hall.

Fleurer and Fleurer, left the hotel last night, carrying the machine and supplies, and Fleurer, a 30-year-old, threw $500 out of the window.

The shut-down was ordered because the Columbia district council of the Sawmill & Timber Workers' Union refused to order $500 strikers at five cents to return to work immediately.

The union had offered to send the strikers back to work whenever operators agreed to submit wage and other demands to arbitration.

Employers said they would not even consider arbitration while "strike strikes" were in progress.

That camps must be all operating or all closed if arbitration is to take place.

A tentative wage increase, however, had been reached when the union of firemen and woodmen conditions broke down.

Only independent firms, it was said, do not operate mills, and the union in the city, San Francisco, Portland mills may have to close next week when the log supply is cut off, throwing additional thousands out of work.

CONDITIONS AT STATE HOME FOR BLIND SCORED BY CLUBWOMEN AT ANNUAL SACRAMENTO CONVENTION

SACRAMENTO, May 13 — UP — Character building, rather than purely physical training was urged today by Mrs. W. D. James of Hanford, president of the California Federation of Women's clubs, in the keynote address before more than 600 delegates to the 35th annual convention of the federation.

Other highlights of the day included a demand that Gov. Frank P. Merriam rectify conditions of intolerable filth and of mistreatment of inmates at the State Home for the Blind at Oakland; an address by Governor Merriam on state expenses, and a technical defeat of a resolution advocating public knowledge of birth control.

The report on the home for the blind was signed by Mrs. Edward W. Gillis, and a copy was sent to the governor.

It described the home as unsanitary and "filthy" and stated that many patients begged that something be done to correct present injustices. Attendees were said to be surly, defiant and insolent and diets in many cases to be inadequate.

Peace Rally Hears Talk By Talbott should disarm to reduce costs of armaments and to reduce the years of people of possible war.

METHODS TOLD

The United States has refused to follow the first two suggestions but must lead in the third, he said.

As possible methods of keeping the country out of war, the speaker suggested that we should define our neutrality law and pass a law with force to it; pass a war products control bill; enter the League of Nations or some other similar organization; learn to become intelligent about this war issue and to "insulate our minds against invidious propaganda."

The second speaker on the program for the evening was Mrs. Bertha Monroe, of the San Francisco Teachers' College. Her subject was "The Cause of War And Our Immediate Danger."

WOMAN MEETING

Mrs. Monroe said in part: "There are four social systems striving for supremacy in the world today: Capitalism, Fascism, Socialism and Communism. Each of these systems, in seeking supremacy, provide definite and imminent dangers of war. Each and all of them are definite threats to the democratic ideals and heritage of America. Peaceful methods can and must be developed in dealing with our international difficulties if we would rid our nation and world of the causes which bring war."

The two talks were a part of a program held throughout the day by various local organizations. August.

YOUR GOOD HEALTH

People Are Given Many Free Aids to Help Them Retain Their Health

By CLAUD NORTH CHRISMAN, M.D.

I AM often reminded of things I never knew before. Even if we do not do like the Chinese, pay the doctors while we stay well, the medical profession is sincere in endeavoring to promote public health and in trying to tell individuals how best to conserve their resources in the way of sound bodies. When I was a youngster, we didn't live so close together and it wasn't so easy to call a doctor.

The old "family almanac" was thought of as being used as a reference book. It always had pages of household remedies in it. One of my earliest recollections is of a book peddler who talked in a loud voice about the "Home and Health" volume he wanted to sell. I was a child, and I was interested in the book, but I was not allowed to read it.

The illustrations weren't many but they made me shiver with their portrayal of diseases from which certain remedies were sure to cure one and all.

"The Household Guide" There are still a few isolated communities where the majority of the family is some sort of "Household Guide," but the major portion of the country is within reach of a car or of medical information.

Most organized communities have an organized health service of some sort. Even the villages have a visiting nursing service with a county supervision back of that.

The public schools have fallen in line with inspection of the children, the use of preventive vaccines, and isolation when infection breaks out. The United States Public Health Service keeps in constant touch with health conditions everywhere and maintains a system of health information on all phases of illness or preventive medicine. This material can be had for the asking just as you can write to Washington and secure pamphlets and books to answer all your questions.

Why Physicians? Well, there have never been enough books, writers or librarians incorporated to educate the public without the medium of an organized school system. So we shall always need a specially trained professional to interpret the knowledge we wish to have applied. It takes intelligence on the part of the patient as well as skill on the part of the doctor to make a success of the application of medical care.

In my own locality we are rather proud of our efforts to keep our public intelligent through our organized health department. Health commissioner issues monthly statements concerning health conditions, milk ratings and the showing of clean hands among the eating places. You haven't any very good excuse for ignorance in matters of healthy living.

Mrs. J. A.—You answer all our questions when you say you weigh 225 pounds. The excess flesh cuts down the lung space and makes you short of breath. The strain on the diaphragm shoots pain up the ribs. The "crick" in your throat, and the gas on your stomach could all be traced to some condition in your overweight. I could not treat your case in the column.

Dr. Chrisman offers readers the privilege of addressing questions to him in care of this paper. He will answer questions of general interest in his regular daily column.

Short Cuts

When toasting sandwiches on a grill, butter the surfaces of both pieces of bread which touch the grill. This will give you a more flavorful sandwich.

Meringue will stand up high if a generous pinch of baking soda is added to beaten egg whites.

To keep nuts and fruit from sinking to the bottom of a cake, heat the nuts and fruit before rolling them in flour and adding to cake batter.

An easy way to adjust curtain hangers is by pulling the shade down and let it serve as a marker.

Guide to Charm

Spring Calls For Dieting; Here's How

By JACQUELINE HUNT

ALONG with spring comes a new enthusiasm for dieting and exercising. One sight of the youthful, pretty little suits and spring frocks in shop windows is enough to send you scurrying home to consult your bathroom scales and tape measure.

There may be pounds to be removed or there may be inches before you will find the new styles and materials becoming.

If it is necessary for you to diet get a good book of menus and a copy of the "How to Be Slender" book. If you eat out occasionally and cannot follow the menus exactly, substitute dishes as nearly as possible like those in the original menu.

Modern menus are flexible. One green vegetable may be used in place of another, one lean meat, eggs or fish may be substituted for that called for in the menu.

If you are a guest you needn't embarrass your hostess by refusing food. Eat it, but eat down on something else or eat less of it. Be honest and make a memo in your "dieting diary" so you will do something about it.

It is a matter of inches, not pounds. If you are out of proportion, if you should begin to take some serious exercises to make the stomach muscles hard and tight and wear away the pads of extra flesh on your hips and thighs.

Begin carefully, going through each exercise only three or four times. Then, gradually increase the time. Repeating the exercises until you are spending ten or fifteen minutes at them every day.

Here is a splendid exercise for the waistline and hips: 1. Stand erect with the head up, stomach pulled in and flat, arms stretched toward the ceiling, knees stiff and feet planted a few inches apart. Keep the legs and feet in this position, only the upper part of the body, head and arms are flexible and free to move.

2. Holding the position described above, bend forward at the waistline until your fingertips touch the floor. Then rotate from the waistline. From the forward bend, rotate your body toward the right until you are bent far over sideways, your fingertips trailing along the floor if they will.

3. From the sideways position rotate toward the back until your body is bent as far backward as possible. Keep on rotating, bending to the left and then back to the original forward-bend position. Straighten up, then bend and twist in the opposite direction. Do this only once in each direction the first time since it isn't as easy as it sounds. After a few days you should be able to make five complete circles in each direction.

A few copies of my booklet on "Slimming Safely," which contains menus and caloric tables, and my leaflet, "How to Be Slender," containing exercises are still available. Just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

NEW YORK—The educational value of the fashion show is now an acknowledged fact. Shops find they are not only attractions but of great assistance to women in making up their minds and in familiarizing them with the latest word.

At a recent fashion promenade, one manikin was dressed in actual costume preserved from pre-war days—1910 or thereabouts—and the manikin followed the same, proving that revivals are subject to innovations.

Both costumes were of the jacket and skirt type and employed kouchage. Presented in tabloid form are some of the impressions not of one but of many such fashion promenade, most of which are slated to display every type of costume.

Gowns that leave one shoulder exposed, as endorsed by Vionnet. Tulle, especially done in tulle, with skirts finely pleated, after Mainbocher. Flaring, peplum, on evening gowns, also on jackets worn with formal gowns, approved by Alix and also by Schiaparelli.

Enormous flowers posed in dramatic fashion at the bottom, sponsored by many Paris houses. Follies, often in contrasting color, provides a very feminine air, recommended by Schiaparelli.

Lace in this type, in gowns built on slim lines, with fullness introduced at the knees, and also in sheer handkerchiefs, favored by Chanel, also by Maggy Rouff and Armande.

Back fullness, introduced at a high and also at a low line, Alix favoring the latter and Mainbocher the former, sometimes in a wide sweeping panel that introduces a contrasting color.

Style Shows Help Ladies New Breakfasts Add To Decision To the Zest of Spring

By JUDITH WILSON

SPRING is the time for new things. New curtains, gay new china and new clothes all satisfy that springtime urge for a change. Most important, but most often overlooked is the urge for something new in breakfast menus. Appetites are still hearty, yet they are fickle, too, and your winter menus, no matter how new, seem as uninspired as your winter wardrobe.

Both costumes were of the jacket and skirt type and employed kouchage. Presented in tabloid form are some of the impressions not of one but of many such fashion promenade, most of which are slated to display every type of costume.

MODERN WOMEN

Jewels Require Care; and Repay by Keeping Value and Beauty

By MARIAN MAYS MARTIN

WOMEN love beautiful jewels. When one tells you she "doesn't care anything about such things," she means that she doesn't care enough about them to sacrifice something else. It does not mean that she does not love to see lovely jewels or finds nothing to admire in sparkling gems or exquisite settings.

Women, it is true, are not as given to wearing jewels as were women in former generations. Some blame the effectiveness of costume jewelry for this, others the economic conditions. So many women have sacrificed their jewels to the cause that it is not unusual to find those who have well-filled jewel caskets to either feel apologetic or cautious.

For generations, a diamond has been associated with a display of jewels. The 1936 opera season has been no disappointment, although it must be admitted that the Diamond House, as the grand tier of boxes has always been called, has not been anything like as brilliant as in pre-war days. One saw only an occasional flash of diamonds where formerly they were general.

The Care of Pearls

Diamonds and sparkling gems of all kinds may for one reason or another suffer a temporary eclipse but pearls go on forever. Those fortunate enough to possess old family pearls treasure them but, according to a Fifth Avenue dealer and an authority on the subject, they do not always care for them as they deserve.

This particular problem may not be a personal one with you, but I am sure you will be interested, as I was, in hearing something about it.

It seems that pearls, like old masters, may be restored to their original luster and beauty. Great-grandmother's string was not always cared for and may need a good general going over.

Just as in a museum, the advisability of restoring an old painting must be determined by the expert—the art curator—in the same fashion the advisability of improving a pearl must be determined by the jewel expert.

Often when pearls are inherited they seem a disappointing gift. Frequently the shell necklace has been in the state of ruin. The pearls may look dull. But they can be restored. If they are soiled, they can be cleaned.

Pearls irregular, shape, set by nature but through wear, can be reshaped. The subsequent loss in size is amply compensated for by the regained beauty of the now round pearl. In most cases the value has been increased.

Removing Scratches

If scratched, the scratches as well as minor surface imperfections can be removed. Dull pearls can be repolished, their luster sheen and luster restored.

Pearls are now drilled only fine enough for the passing of the pearl silk. In the long ago, pearls were strung on baby ribbon and tied with a bow at the back of the neck. Large holes were necessary. Pearls have been strung, into necklaces, brooches, scarves and earrings by merely continuing the peg hole. Pearls with irregular holes, hang unevenly, but a sagging pearl can be lifted back into line by simply fitting into the uneven drill hole a minute piece of ivory finely and accurately drilled.

A necklace of natural pearls lasts many times longer than a limousine and deserves at least as much care. After the death of a well-known woman her jewels, which had been worn and enjoyed for many years, were sold by her estate. The jewels brought 70 per cent of their original cost.

QUESTION: "I have been told that engraved announcements of an engagement are never sent out. Is this so? Also, how does one go about having an engagement announcement published in a local newspaper?" Mrs. W. A. T.

ANSWER: You are quite right. Engraved engagement announcements are not necessary and in poor taste. Write or telephone the engagement notice to your local paper, using the following form: "Mr. and Mrs. John Smith announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss M. Robert Dobson, of Berkeley, California."

Don't Take Pills For Constipation

Ordinary pills taken to relieve constipation merely force a movement of the bowels without making the bowels themselves healthy. That's why the trouble returns in a day or two and you have to swallow more pills.

What every constipated person needs is a good liver tonic. Plantax is a thoroughly reliable laxative system of all four operations and at the same time restores the bowels to their normal condition. When this is done you will no longer have to take pills. Plantax gives you a healthy, clear, glowing skin, good stomach, and no more constipation or liver trouble.

Plantax is made from the juices of harmless medicinal plants. Nature's own remedy—that act to a mild, easy way without "sneezing" or irritating the bowels. Try it tonight. Sheriff Asks Court To Halt Second Trial

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—UP.—Sheriff Walter B. Selmer of Marin County today petitioned the District court of Appeals here for a writ of prohibition preventing his trial in county superior court May 25 on charges of corrupt conduct.

Selmer alleged in his petition the charges were "an attempt to blacken my reputation and destroy my political standing."

Charged with appropriating portions of his deputies' salaries, failing to close gambling places and neglecting his duties, Selmer contends he is being placed in jeopardy twice as he was tried on the same charges two months ago.

Suicide Theory Is Advanced In San Jose Death

SAN JOSE, May 13.—UP.—Alcadio Espetia, 30 year old ranch hand, met his death through suicide rather than at the hands of assailants, Santa Clara county deputies decided today following investigation.

Esperia's body was found on the Curtner ranch near Milpitas. Examination showed his throat cut, skull fractured and chest punctured, apparently by a knife.

Circumstances surrounding his death indicated possible murder but deputies favored the suicide theory following a careful check-up of available facts.

BORAH WINS 6 DELEGATES IN OHIO ELECTION

COLUMBUS, May 13.—UP—Senator William E. Borah appeared tonight to have a chance of salvaging six of Ohio's 52 delegates to the Republican national convention out of a primary won by the state's "favorite son" state.

Robert A. Taft, son of the former president and the favorite son candidate, ran far ahead of the Idaho senator and apparently was certain of at least 46 Ohio delegates.

President Roosevelt was running 15 to 1 ahead of Colonel Henry Breckinridge of New York who entered the Democratic presidential preference contest to test the extent of opposition to the New Deal in Ohio.

In 6983 out of the state's 8673 precincts Mr. Roosevelt received 407,753 votes and Breckinridge, 27,512.

Governor Martin L. Davey, frequently at odds with the New Deal, won renomination on the Democratic ticket over Representative Stephen M. Young. Returns from 6255 precincts gave Davey 220,031 (5 Young's 137,610).

The regular Republican organization is interested in getting an unpledged delegation to the convention—one that can cast a complimentary vote for Taft on the first ballot and then, if it chooses, swing anywhere. Borah made this strategy an issue, condemning the favorite son system as an instrument of political deception.

Demos Are Incensed At Sen. McAdoo

or Thomas, neither did they appear. The fact that the latter two had ignored the committee request was ordered made a record in the minutes of the committee.

MCADOO "PUNISHED"

A letter from U. S. Senator W. G. McAdoo in which he stated that the endorsement of the committee for the postmaster, his at Walnut Creek could not be considered, because the person recommended was not on the civil service eligible list, was received.

M. V. Mulcahey took exception to the letter by stating that he had never heard a better plea for a Republican than had been made in the letter of McAdoo in behalf of the recent appointee, at Walnut Creek. There were three Democrats on the eligible list and these were not considered at all, but it seems the Democrats had to go out of their own fold and select a Republican.

PATRONAGE BOSSES

"The fact of the matter is," continued Mulcahey "that appointments to office in this county are made by two people in Contra Costa, ex-Assemblyman Cliff Anglin and Postmaster L. J. Thomas of Richmond. Internal Revenue Lewis has stated that he only recognizes these two men in Contra Costa, so far as patronage is concerned. If this is the way the patronage of the Democrats is to be handled, it is about time that we know it." Mulcahey termed McAdoo a scoundrel to the Democrats of California, and urged that the committee do everything in its power to remove him from office. The speaker suggested that he be permitted to write a letter to McAdoo.

WILL SEND LETTER

This was followed by a motion by Dan Noziglia that the request be granted, and the motion was adopted by a unanimous vote. Noziglia adding that the letter could not be made too strong.

REPUBLICANS BLAMED

It was charged in the open meeting that the appointment of Mrs. A. V. De Luxe (Republican) was made by Democrats, thru the dictation of Republicans, and Senator Hiram Johnson was responsible for the action, together with McAdoo.

EDITOR OBJECTS

M. F. Blank, operating the Martinez Herald for Cliff Anglin took issue with some of the statements made against McAdoo and other prominent Democrats, and said that there should be harmony, and there should be no fighting among Democrats.

REMARKS RESENTED

"I take exception to the remarks of the speaker," said Mulcahey. "It is our duty to stand for good government, and if there are renegades in the party it is our duty to get rid of them. I suppose it is Blank's idea for us to be subservient in every manner, that when we are struck in the face, we should turn the other cheek for another blow. Then at the third blow we should bow in abasement, and at the fourth, we should topple over. I am not built that way."

Similar sentiments were expressed by John Alexander, Harry Burt, John Garaventa, and Emma Pearman.

THOSE PRESENT

Those present at the meeting tonight were: Robert Willis, (chairman), Martinez; R. J. Adams (secretary), John Alexander, Harry Burt, Dan Noziglia, Emma Pearman, A. A. McGimsey, Richmond; John Garaventa, Concord; Harry Hoffman, Walnut Creek; M. V. Mulcahey, Pittsburg, and E. D. Sellers, Jr., Oakley.

Chrysler New Favorite With Feminine Fair

A new favorite of feminine motorists!

That, in a phrase, describes the reception granted the new Chrysler De Luxe 8, according to Curry Auto Sales company, Chrysler-Plymouth dealer here.

"No car Chrysler has ever produced has received such wholehearted approval from female motor car buyers as the new Chrysler De Luxe 8," Chrysler cars have always had an easy task in winning masculine approval through their rugged construction and flashing performance, but this new Chrysler De Luxe 8 has scored a big hit with the ardent Chrysler enthusiasts.

"One more factor which has added to the De Luxe 8's appeal to women is the smart silhouette of this car's exterior design, and the distinctive color combinations Chrysler artists have chosen for its finish."

"Chrysler sales are running 72 per cent ahead of current figures a year ago, a substantially larger gain than reported by the motor industry as a whole."

"Deep, wide, chair-high seats which are more like living room divans than automobile seating equipment adds greatly to the car's attractiveness to the woman motorists. Exceptionally generous luggage capacity in the De Luxe

Rain Is Forecast By Weather Man

Continued unsettled weather, with possibility of rain, was predicted for the San Francisco Bay area today by the United States Weather Bureau.

A depression of unusual depth along the northern California coast has already caused showers, along the coast area and likely will bring more rain today, the weather man said.

The "unsettled" area extends from San Francisco to Washington and small craft warnings have been issued on the Pacific Coast from Fort Bragg to Cape Flattery.

Models is another factor, and then the driving ease for which Chrysler has long been noted has been reinforced, so that "finger-tip" driving actually becomes a reality in the De Luxe 8.

Gov. Merriam Is Expected To Call Meeting

SACRAMENTO, May 13.—UP—A call for a special session of the legislature, possibly for next Monday, to cope with the present relief crisis in the state, is expected almost hourly from Governor Frank F. Merriam.

The governor admitted today that his several alternate suggested plans to raise the needed $2,500,000, apparently had failed and "it looks as though we will have to have a special session, but we are going to avoid it if we can."

Controller Ray L. Riley said present available funds will be exhausted completely by Friday night and unless additional money is made available he will sign no more warrants for direct relief after that date.

Merriam refused to admit that the situation was as serious as pictured, however, and said if the May 15 payroll is met there would be little additional expense to meet until June 1. The legislature can meet prior to that, all else failing, he said, and authorize expenditure of $2,500,000 from the $24,000,000 appropriated for the final year of the biennium.

Mexican Divorce Decrees Will Be Tested In Court

SACRAMENTO, May 13.—UP—

Carl Kegel, Los Angeles, has filed petition with the State Supreme Court to validate his divorce, Mexico non-resident divorce and set aside a California state divorce obtained by his former wife.

Action by the court is expected to establish the constitutional status of the Mexican proceedings and to serve as a basis for settling numerous other cases in this state.

Kegel said, in his petition, that through a prearranged agreement he and his wife obtained a Mexican divorce on January 19, 1934. The following day, he said, he married another woman but on May 24, the same year, his former wife, Hazel, doubting the legality of the Mexican divorce, obtained one in Superior court in Los Angeles county on grounds of extreme cruelty.

Road Program Is Studied At Meet

SANTA ROSA, May 13.—UP—Forty-seven delegates from the seven North Coast counties met here today with members of the highway committee of the State Chamber of Commerce, to discuss plans for road improvements to be recommended to the State Highway Commission.

Howard Knight, chairman of the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors, and chamber committee chairman, presided.

All counties asked for road improvement, repaving and the elimination of curves. Most important projects planned were the widening of the pavement on the main highway through Marin county to the Sonoma county line, which will become a feeder for Golden Gate bridge traffic, and improvement of highway entrances leading into Paluma and Santa Rosa.

In granting the divorce to Mrs. Hazel Kegel, ruled that the Mexican proceeding was invalid.
